IN THE MATTER OF

Puerto Rico Department of Labor
Complainant

v.

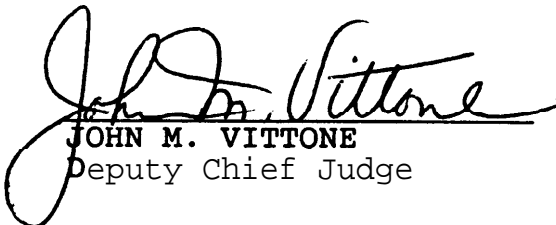

U.S. Department of Labor
Respondent

Case No.: 90-JTP-11

ORDER

Complainant, Puerto Rico Department of Labor, filed a motion for a ninety day extension within which to file its prehearing exchange on March 1, 1990. In support of this motion, Complainant asserted that it had recently provided Respondent, the United States Department of Labor, documentation which should settle a significant amount of the dispute. In view of this, Complainant sought this extension of time so that the parties could "complete discovery and discussions related to the disposition of the case and or filing of the Prehearing Exchange." To date, Respondent has not objected to this motion.

Accordingly, for good cause shown and the absence of any legitimate objection Complainant's motion for a ninety day extension within which to file its prehearing exchange is GRANTED.
